An heritage of “savoir-faire”

Founded in 1991 by François-Xavier Clerc and now led by his daughter Isabelle Clerc, AEROAFFAIRES is a family-owned air charter company and one of Europe’s most experienced and trusted private aviation brokers.

From day one, our mission has remained the same: saving our clients time through tailored private jet and helicopter solutions.

With over 40,000 international flights arranged, AEROAFFAIRES combines aviation expertise with the precision and discretion of a dedicated concierge service.

As a true airline conciergerie every mission becomes our top priority.

We stand by our passengers and act resolutely in their best interests.

“

CEO of AEROAFFAIRES

Pioneering private jet charter for over 35 years

AEROAFFAIRES has been arranging tailor-made flights for private clients, family offices, companies, governments, international federations and non-governmental organisations. Your journey begins well before take-off and extends beyond landing. Limousine transfers, private terminal assistance, helicopter connections: each element is carefully coordinated.

We deliver a seamless organisation of your travel, both in the air and on the ground. A discreet and comprehensive service, designed for those who delegate the logistics but expect precision at every step.

INTEGRITY
